

Family Medicine Associates Physician – Thornton

The Practice: A small primary care office looking for a Physician to join an established clinic. We currently have one nurse practitioner and one MD, and we have our eyes set on expansion in the next few years. This position offers extensive opportunity for collaboration and flexibility to customize the role.

The Community: Located in Thornton, CO the practice is centrally located between Denver and Boulder and services a diverse patient population.

The Position:

- Provides full spectrum primary care.
- Develops and documents a plan of care for each patient, including a complete medical history, a physical examination, diagnosis of the causes of injuries and illnesses, appropriate treatment and/or referral.
- Adheres to departmental policies, procedures and objectives, ongoing quality improvement objectives, and safety, environmental and infection control standards.
- Maintains patient confidentiality and complies with all federal and state health information privacy laws.
- Records complete, timely and legible medical records.
- Open to seeing patients of all ages and providing women's health services within a primary care setting.
- Comfortable seeing patients with chronic and complicated health conditions.

Qualifications (Education/Experience/Knowledge/Skills/Abilities):

- MD or DO degree from fully accredited medical or osteopathic school of medicine.
- Residency trained in internal or family medicine.
- Board certification in family medicine.
- Excellent communication and inter-personal skills
- Willingness to collaborate with advanced practice providers.
- Medicare/Medicaid credentialing a plus.

Job Schedule: Part or Full time

Shift: Days

Workdays: Flexible

Travel: n/a

Salary Range: $150,000-$220,000 dependent on experience and schedule

Benefits:

Top-rated malpractice insurance coverage

Health/dental/vision insurance

Performance/quality bonus potential