

Colorado Family Medicine Residency RTT Programs Quick Reference Guide

	Alamosa 2/2/2	Fort Morgan 2/2/2	Sterling 2/2/2	Wray 1/1/1
Population	9,562	11,407	14,637	2,390
Core Program	Southern Colorado Family Medicine Residency	University of Colorado Family Medicine Residency	North Colorado Family Medicine Residency	North Colorado Family Medicine Residency
Rural Clinic	Alamosa Family Medical Center	Salud Family Health Center	Sterling Family Care Clinic	Wray Clinic
Rural Hospital	San Luis Valley Health	Colorado Plains Medical Center	Sterling Regional Medical Center	Wray Community District Hospital
Community Website	www.alamosa.org	www.cityoffortmorgan.com	www.sterlingcolo.com	www.wrayco.net
Program Highlights	Clinic provides acute care, well-childcare, young adult medicine, prenatal care, obstetrics, and geriatrics. Multicultural community Outdoor recreation opportunities Adams State University in community offers graduate education.	Clinic serves Ft. Morgan community including indigent/migrant population. Broad range of office and hospital-based procedures including C-sections Located 90 minutes from Denver Morgan Community College offers graduate education.	Longitudinal curriculum throughout training. Residents trained to perform many procedures including colonoscopies, EGDs, and C-sections. Northeastern Junior College in community provides graduate education.	Mature program established in 1992 Longitudinal curriculum throughout training Residents trained to perform many procedures including colonoscopies, EGDs, and C-sections. Golfing, fishing, and hunting opportunities