

REASONS WHY You Belong Here

①

COLLABORATIVE, INTERDISCIPLINARY TEAM: At Family Health West Primary Care you are supported by a team of skilled providers, hospitalists, and specialists in your network.

②

SUPPORT & NURTURE YOUR PASSIONS IN MEDICINE: Our clinic encourages you to build your caseload with the interests you want to specialize in the most.

Particular need for a provider specializing in men's health!

③

PART OF AN INSPIRING TEAM: You'll wear your FHW employee badge proudly, knowing you contribute each day, to providing care for kids and adults of all ages, that is unmatched in western Colorado.

④

WE KNOW LIFE HAPPENS: Composed of employees who are more than care providers, we know there is life outside of work and happily work with you to find balance.

⑤

HARD WORK IS RECOGNIZED & REWARDED: You are compensated for providing value-based care. Less emphasis is put on producing RVUS to avoid physician burn out – ultimately, improving outcomes for patients.

⑥

WE CARE FOR THE WHOLE PATIENT: Supported by a team of talent, you have access to specialists including Integrated Behavioral Health, right in the clinic.

"Wonderfully supportive staff, administration, and coworkers who allow us to pursue our passions and interests, even when it may not align with traditional primary care."

- John Draminski, MD

"I am proud to be part of an organization that is physician lead, values physician input, and recognizes the importance of primary care. I feel I have a voice." - Vanessa McClellan, DO

"I feel 100% supported in my medical passions, goals, and ambitions. My practice is roughly 80% dermatology and I couldn't be happier."

- Mackenzie Hartman, DO

A PLACE TO PROSPER

The Western Slope of Colorado

Adventure At Your Backdoor

Outdoor adventures abound in every direction. The Colorado and Gunnison Rivers cut across the County providing fishing, rafting, and summer reprieve. An abundance of public lands that host hiking trails, the Colorado National Monument, camping, 4-wheeling, and so much more. There is such a variety of activities, adventures, and an endless outdoor playground that's available year-round.

Day-To-Day

Beyond the great views, our hometown includes two nearby regional airports, short commute times no matter where you live in the valley. If you have kids – the school district offers a variety of unique programs from online to in-classroom, dual language immersion, Waldorf education, modified school days, and so much more.

Travel & Commute

Two regional airports are within an hour of each other giving flight options that can take you around the world. Your commute to work, regardless of where you live in the County, won't include subway stops or bus stops, but instead could include a lack of stop-and-go traffic or rush hour. You can choose to ride your bike to work, walk, or drive your car.

Activities Nearby

Ski slopes are available less than an hour away from the Grand Valley, as is Palisade's wine country, enjoy the nearby Grand Mesa National Forrest, dinosaur bone digging, and wild horse viewing.
