ABOUT AURORA FAMILY MEDICINE CENTER:

Aurora Family Medicine Center is a private practice with over forty years of clinical practice and medical education on the campus of The Medical Center of Aurora. AFMC hosts medical students, PA students and residents on rotations in their busy office serving a diverse patient population in Denver's eastern suburbs. This practice enjoys an unmatched reputation with the medical staff and hospital administration. They care for many physician's and executive's families and were chosen by the University of Southern California's Keck School of Medicine to host USC Family Medicine students because of their academic and clinical excellence. The practice provides routine and acute care to patients of all ages from infants to seniors. Suturing, casting, biopsies, and many minor procedures are done in the office.
